Vh-004441 For sale in Nagylók: a fully renovated and redesigned family house with a 123 m² useful floor area and a 94 m² outbuilding, located on a 2,496 m² plot in a quiet street with no through traffic!

Nagylók is located just 25–30 km from Székesfehérvár and Dunaújváros, and only a 10-minute drive from Sárbogárd. The village is accessible by railway and several bus lines connect it to nearby settlements. Almost everything necessary for a comfortable lifestyle is available nearby, such as a doctor, post office, kindergarten, school, shops, sports field, fishing lake, and more.

The house is built of mixed materials. The original 40 m² part was constructed from Sósút stone in the late 1960s. The remaining parts of the house were added in 2007 using Porotherm 38 bricks. During that time, a complete renovation was carried out, including the replacement of the entire roof structure, water and electrical systems, floor and wall coverings, and windows and doors. The heating system was modernized; the electrical system was expanded to 3 phases, and industrial power is also available. A camera and alarm system were installed.
